About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1989 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 2 February 2009. It also includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 2 February 2009.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1989.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere.

For example, the signpost definition 'person aggrieved—see section 3B.' means that the term 'person aggrieved' is defined that section.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

3A Meaning of making and failure to make a decision

- (1) For this Act, a reference to the making of a decision includes a reference to—

 - (f) keeping, or refusing to give up, an article; or
 - (g) doing or refusing to do anything else;
- (2) If provision is made by an enactment for the making of a report or recommendation before a decision is made, the making of the report or recommendation is itself taken, for this Act, to be the making of a decision.
- (3) A reference to a failure to make a decision includes a reference to a failure to make—
- (a) a decision mentioned in subsection (1) (a) to (g); or
 - (b) a report or recommendation mentioned in subsection (2).

Note Fail is defined in the Legislation Act, dict, pt 1, to include refuse.

3B Meaning of person aggrieved

- (1) For this Act, a reference to a person aggrieved by a decision includes a reference to—
- (a) a person whose interests are adversely affected by the decision; and
 - (b) for a decision by way of the making of a report or recommendation—a person whose interests would be adversely affected if a decision were, or were not, made in accordance with the report or recommendation.
- (2) For this Act, a reference to a person aggrieved by conduct that has been, is being, or is proposed to be engaged in for the purpose of making a decision, includes a reference to a person whose interests are, or would be, adversely affected by the conduct.

- (3) For this Act, a reference to a person aggrieved by a failure to make a decision includes a reference to a person whose interests are, or would be, adversely affected by the failure.

3C Meaning of conduct engaged in for purpose of making decision

4 Act to operate despite anything in existing laws

This Act has effect despite anything contained in any enactment in force at the commencement of this Act.

5 Applications for review of decisions

- (a) that a breach of the rules of natural justice happened in relation to the making of the decision;
 - (b) that procedures that were required by law to be observed in relation to the making of the decision were not observed;
 - (c) that the person who purported to make the decision did not have jurisdiction to make the decision;

- (3) The ground mentioned in subsection (1) (h) is not taken to be made out unless—
- (a) the person who made the decision was required by law to reach that decision only if a particular matter was established, and there was no evidence or other material (including facts of which the person was entitled to take notice) from which the person could reasonably be satisfied that the matter was established; or
 - (b) the person who made the decision based the decision on the existence of a particular fact, and that fact did not exist.

6 Applications for review of conduct related to making of decisions

- (1) If a person has engaged, is engaging, or proposes to engage, in conduct for the purpose of making a decision to which this Act applies, a person aggrieved by the conduct may apply to the Supreme Court for an order of review in relation to the conduct on any 1 or more of the following grounds:
- (a) that a breach of the rules of natural justice has happened, is happening, or is likely to happen, in relation to the conduct;
 - (b) that procedures that are required by law to be observed in relation to the conduct have not been, are not being, or are likely not to be, observed;

 - (d) that the enactment under which the decision is proposed to be made does not authorise the making of the proposed decision;
 - (e) that the making of the proposed decision would be an improper exercise of the power given by the enactment under which the decision is proposed to be made;

- (f) that an error of law—
 - (i) has been, is being, or is likely to be, committed in the course of the conduct in the making of the proposed decision; or
 - (ii) is likely to be committed in the making of the proposed decision.
 - (g) that fraud has taken place, is taking place, or is likely to take place, in the course of the conduct;

 - (i) that the making of the proposed decision would be otherwise contrary to law.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) (e) to an improper exercise of a power includes a reference to—
- (a) taking an irrelevant consideration into account in the exercise of a power; and
 - (b) failing to take a relevant consideration into account in the exercise of a power; and
 - (c) an exercise of a power for a purpose other than a purpose for which the power is given; and

7 Applications for failures to make decisions

- (a) a person has a duty to make a decision to which this Act applies; and
 - (b) there is no law that prescribes a period within which the person is required to make that decision; and
 - (c) the person has failed to make that decision;

a person aggrieved by the failure to make the decision may apply to the Supreme Court for an order of review in relation to the failure to make the decision on the ground that there has been unreasonable delay in making the decision.

- (2) If—
- (a) a person has a duty to make a decision to which this Act applies; and

- (b) a law prescribes a period within which the person is required to make that decision; and
- (c) the person has failed to make that decision before the end of that period;

a person aggrieved by the failure may apply to the Supreme Court for an order of review in relation to the failure to make the decision within that period on the ground that the person has a duty to make the decision even though the period has ended.

8 Effect of Act on other rights

- (1) The rights given by section 5, section 6 and section 7 to a person to seek an order for review—
 - (a) are additional to the rights of the person to seek a review in another way; and
 - (b) must be disregarded for the Ombudsman Act 1989, section 6 (6).
- (2) However—
 - (a) the Supreme Court or any other court may, in a proceeding brought otherwise than under this Act, refuse to grant an application for review in relation to a matter if an application for review of that matter has been made to the Supreme Court under section 5, section 6 or section 7; and
 - (b) the Supreme Court may, in its discretion, refuse to grant an application for review of a matter under section 5, section 6 or section 7 if—
 - (i) the applicant has sought a review by a court including the Supreme Court of the matter otherwise than under this Act; or

- (ii) adequate provision is made by a law other than this Act under which the applicant is entitled to seek a review of that matter; or
 - (iii) the matter to which the application relates arises under the Planning and Development Act 2007 or the Heritage Act 2004 and is a matter being reviewed, or for which application has been made for review, under a law other than this Act, whether on the application of the person who has made application to the Supreme Court for review of the matter under this Act or anyone else.
- (3) In this section:
review includes—
- (a) a review by way of reconsideration, rehearing or appeal; and
 - (b) the grant of an injunction; and
 - (c) the making of a prerogative order, declaration or other order.

9 Applications for order of review must set out grounds

An application to the Supreme Court for an order of review must set out the grounds of the application.

10 Period in which application for order of review must be made

- (1) An application to the Supreme Court for an order of review in relation to a decision that has been made (including a decision made after the end of the period within which it was required to be made) must be made within the period required by subsection (2) (or any further time allowed by the court) if the terms of the decision were—
- (a) recorded in writing; and

(b) set out in a document that was given to the applicant.

Note The court may allow further time after the end of the period required by s (2) (see Legislation Act, s 151C).

- (2) For subsection (1), the period within which an application for an order of review is required to be made is the period beginning on the day the decision is made and ending 28 days after the relevant day.
- (3) If there is no period prescribed for making an application for an order for review in relation to a particular decision, the Supreme Court may refuse to consider an application for an order for review in relation to the decision if it is of the opinion that the application was not made within a reasonable time after the decision was made.
- (4) If there is no period prescribed for making an application by a particular person for an order for review in relation to a particular decision, the Supreme Court may refuse to consider an application by the person for an order for review in relation to the decision if it is of the opinion that the application was not made within a reasonable time after the decision was made.
- (5) In forming an opinion for subsection (3) or (4), the Supreme Court—
 - (a) must have regard to—
 - (i) the time when the applicant became aware of the decision; and
 - (ii) if subsection (4) applies—the period prescribed for the making of an application by anyone else for an order of review in relation to the decision; and
 - (b) may have regard to anything else it considers relevant.

(6) In subsection (2):

relevant day means—

(a) if the decision includes, or is accompanied by, a written statement of reasons for the decision—the day a document setting out the terms of the decision is given to the applicant; or

Note For the meaning of statement of reasons, see the dict.

(b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and a written statement of reasons for the decision is given to the applicant (otherwise than because of a request under section 13 (1)) not later than 28 days after the day a document setting out the terms of the decision is given to the applicant—the day the statement is given to the applicant; or

(c) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the applicant requests the person who made the decision to give a statement under section 13 (1)—

(i) the day the statement is given to the applicant; or

(ii) the day the applicant is told under section 13 (3) that the applicant was not entitled to make the request; or

(iii) the day the Supreme Court makes an order under section 13 (6) declaring that the applicant was not entitled to make the request; or

(iv) the day the applicant is told under section 14 (3) or section 15 (3) that the statement will not be given to the applicant.

(d) in any other case—the day a document setting out the terms of the decision.

11 Application for order of review not limited to grounds in application

The applicant for an order of review is not limited to the grounds set out in the application but, if the applicant wishes to rely on a ground not set out in the application, the Supreme Court may direct the application be amended to state the ground.

12 Application to be made a party to a proceeding

- (1) A person interested in a decision, conduct or failure in relation to which an application has been made to the Supreme Court under this Act may apply to the Supreme Court to be made a party to the application.
- (2) The Supreme Court may, in its discretion—
 - (a) grant the application either unconditionally or subject to the conditions that it considers appropriate; or
 - (b) refuse the application.

13 Reasons for decision may be obtained

- (1) If a person (the decision-maker) makes a decision to which this section applies, a person (the requester) who is entitled to make an application to the Supreme Court under section 5 in relation to the decision may, in writing, request the decision-maker to provide a written statement of reasons in relation to the decision.

Note For the meaning of statement of reasons, see the dict.

- (2) The decision-maker must, as soon as practicable and in any event not later than 28 days after the day the decision-maker receives the request (the request day), prepare the statement and give it to the requester.

- (3) If the decision-maker is of the opinion that the requester was not entitled to make the request, the decision-maker may, not later than 28 days after the request day—
 - (a) give to the requester written notice of the decision-maker's opinion; or
 - (b) apply to the Supreme Court under subsection (6) for an order declaring that the requester was not entitled to make the request.
- (4) Despite subsection (2), if the decision-maker gives notice under subsection (3) or applies to the Supreme Court under subsection (6), the decision-maker is not required to comply with the request unless—
 - (a) the court, on an application under subsection (6), orders the decision-maker to give the statement; or
 - (b) the decision-maker has applied to the court under subsection (6) for an order declaring that the requester was not entitled to make the request and the court refuses the application.
- (5) If subsection (4) (a) or (b) applies, the decision-maker must prepare the statement and give it to the requester not later than 28 days after the day of the Supreme Court's decision.

- (7) Despite subsection (2), the decision-maker may refuse to prepare and give the statement to the requester if—
 - (a) for a decision the terms of which were recorded in writing and set out in a document that was given to the requester—the request was made later than 28 days after the day the document was given to the requester; or

- (b) in any other case—the relevant request was not made within a reasonable time after the decision was made.
- (8) If subsection (7) (a) or (b) applies, the decision maker must give to the requester, not later than 14 days after the request day, written notice stating—
- (a) that the statement will not be given to the requestor; and
- (b) the reasons why it will not be given.
- (9) For subsection (7) (b), a request for a statement in relation to a decision is taken to have been made within a reasonable time after the decision was made if the Supreme Court, on application by the requester, declares that the request was made within a reasonable time after the decision was made.
- (10) On application by the requester under this subsection, the Supreme Court may order the decision-maker to give the requester, within a stated period, an additional statement containing better particulars in relation to stated matters if the court considers that the statement given to the requester does not contain adequate particulars, in relation to the decision.
- (11) A regulation may declare decisions not to be decisions to which this section applies.

 - (b) if the statement would be false or misleading if it did not include the information—the person is not required to give the statement.

- (3) If, under subsection (2), information is not included in a statement provided by a person or a statement is not provided by a person, the person must provide written notice to the person who requested the statement—
 - (a) if information is not included in a statement—stating that the information is not so included and giving the reason for not including the information; or
 - (b) if a statement is not provided—stating that the statement will not be provided and giving the reason for not providing the statement.
- (4) This section does not affect the power of the Supreme Court to make an order for the discovery of documents or to require the giving of evidence or the production of documents to the court.

15 Ministerial certificate about disclosure of information

- (1) This section applies to information relating to a matter if the Minister certifies, in writing, that the disclosure of information relating to the matter would be contrary to the public interest—
 - (a) because it would involve the disclosure of deliberations or a decision of the Executive or of a committee of the Executive; or

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Ordinance 1989 No 33 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).
