

To Access CaseBase:

Log on to LexisNexis AU at: www.lexisnexis.com/au/legal

CaseBase is a comprehensive case citator and annotator, covering more than 60 Australian and overseas report series. Case entries include case details, parallel citations, judicially considered words and phrases, catchwords, digests, articles considering the case, and, for online subscribers, a link to the full text of the decision or articles cited where available.

CaseBase signals summarise the subsequent judicial consideration the case has received, a list of cases that have subsequently considered the case and a list of cases considered in the case.

To Open CaseBase

1. Type in case name, or citation, details in the 'Case by name or citation field' in the Quick Find section of the Home Page

Or

2. Click the Search link, to the right of CaseBase in the My Sources section

Or

3. Click on Cases Tab in the toolbar, then select the CaseBase Search Form (left side of the screen):

Searching in CaseBase

You can enter single or multiple search terms into more than one field:

Search Terms:	Enter specific words or terms within any CaseBase entry.
Case Name:	Enter the name of the party/ies, e.g. Milpurruru and Indofurn.
Legislation judicially considered:	To find cases which judicially consider particular legislation, enter the legislation title and provision number.
Words & Phrases:	Searches for a specific word or phrase judicially considered.
Citations:	Enter the BC number, all or part of the case, e.g. BC9400232
Judgment Date:	Enter part or all of the date, e.g. 13 Dec 1994 or simply 1994, in the drop-down.
Catchwords / Summary:	Searches catchwords using the same subject classification as Halsbury's , Australian Current Law and LawNow Legislation .
Jurisdiction & Court:	For results within a particular jurisdiction, tick the box next to it.
Judge:	Enter the name of the judge

CaseBase Signals

This case has received some negative treatment. It has been subsequently reversed, not followed, disapproved or overruled.

This case has received some cautionary treatment. It has been subsequently varied, distinguished, questioned or explained.

This case has received positive treatment. It has been subsequently affirmed, applied, followed or approved.

This case has received neutral treatment. It has merely been cited, considered or similarly referred to without positive or negative reflection.

This case has not been referred to by other cases. Case details are available but there are no details of subsequent consideration.

Information in a CaseBase entry

- Links to full text: Gives access the full text of each case.
- Case details: Includes details of the primary case.
- Navigation links: By clicking on the Journal articles referring to this case link, you can go to a list of articles considering the primary case.
- Appeal proceedings: Lists subsequent appeal proceedings for the primary case and indicates whether the appeal affirmed, varied or reversed the primary case.
- CaseBase Signals: Indicate the type of judicial treatment each decision has received.
- Cases referring to this case: Lists decisions which subsequently considered the primary case and how the primary decision was treated.
- Filter by annotation: Allows you to view only certain cases - according to the type of treatment given, e.g. negative cases only, positive cases only, etc.
- Sort by: Allows you to sort the Cases referring to this case by judgment date, annotation type, court or case name.
- Journal articles referring to this case: Alphabetically lists articles considering the primary case. Clicking on the CaseBase signal takes you to the CaseBase article. Clicking on the linked citation takes you to LexisNexis articles.
- Cases considered by this case: Lists cases referred to, or considered by, the primary case. The Filter by annotation and Sort by drop-down boxes refine the list of cases.
- Legislation considered by this case: Lists the legislative provisions referred to in the primary case. LawNow Legislation now accesses the current or historical version of the referenced legislation by clicking on the link.
- Catchwords & Digest: Provides an index to key areas of law addressed in a case or article. The digest summarises the legal issues raised, discussed and decided in the judgment or journal article.
- Words and phrases: Lists Key terms considered in a case.

The screenshot shows the LexisNexis CaseBase entry for 'Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) v Narain'. The page is annotated with red circles and numbers 1 through 13, corresponding to the information in the CaseBase entry. The annotations are as follows:

- 1: Case title and citation: Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) v Narain [2008] FCAFC 120; (2008) 169 F... FCA
- 2: Court and judgment date: Court: FCA; Judgment: Insulation, Jamboon and...; Judgment Date: 3/7/2008
- 3: Appeal proceedings: Appeal proceedings | Cases referring to this case | Journal articles referring to this case | Cases considered by this case | Legislation considered by this case | Catchwords & Digest | Words & Phrases
- 4: Annotations: Annotations table with columns: Annotation, Case Name, Citations, Court, Date, Signal
- 5: Cases referring to this case: Filter By: Annotation; Sort By: Judgment Date (Latest First)
- 6: Filter by annotation: Filter By: Annotation; Sort By: Judgment Date (Latest First)
- 7: Sort by: Sort By: Judgment Date (Latest First)
- 8: Cases referring to this case table: Table with columns: Annotation, Case Name, Citations, Court, Date, Signal
- 9: Journal articles referring to this case: Journal articles referring to this case table with columns: Article Name, Citations, Signal
- 10: Cases considered by this case: Filter By: Annotation; Sort By: Judgment Date (Latest First)
- 11: Legislation considered by this case: Legislation Name & Jurisdiction, Provisions
- 12: Catchwords & Digest: Corporations - Offences - False or misleading statements - Publication
- 13: Words & Phrases: Words & Phrases