INDEX OF CASES IN THIS PART

ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER PEOPLES

Native title — Appeal from determination of National Native Title Tribunal (tribunal) that future act may be done under Native Title Act 1993 (Cth) (NTA) — Whether tribunal incorrectly applied test for negotiations in good faith required by s 31 of NTA — Whether tribunal erred in finding that grantee party was required to negotiate with registered native title claimant in circumstances where there was application under s 66B of NTA — Whether tribunal conflated “payment” in Div 3 of Pt 2 of NTA with “compensation” in Div 5 of Pt 2 of NTA — Whether tribunal denied parties procedural fairness by considering, without notice to parties, concept of “market” under Australian Consumer Law — Where applicant contended tribunal’s findings about expert evidence were legally unreasonable: Gomeri People v Santos NSW Pty Ltd 420 ALR 632

Native title — Criteria under s 39 of NTA — Public interest in doing of act — Effect of 1998 amendments to NTA — Consideration of approvals and recommendations of other bodies — Consideration of expert evidence — Whether effects of climate change capable of falling within s 39(1)(e) of NTA: Gomeri People v Santos NSW Pty Ltd 420 ALR 632

CHARITIES

Charitable trusts — Whether there is absolute rule that gifts to corporations having charitable objects are held on trust — Whether relevant property was held on terms of charitable trust cognisable in equity — Whether relevant companies’ objects were solely charitable in legal sense of that term, such that companies were amenable to such jurisdiction as court may have over “charitable corporations” with exclusively charitable objects: Grain Technology Australia Ltd v Rosewood Research Pty Ltd (No 3) 420 ALR 529

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Appeal — Remitter — Appeal from decision of National Native Title Tribunal (tribunal) — Order made remitting matter to heard by tribunal without further evidence — Where parties agreed there should be no order as to costs: Gomeri People v Santos NSW Pty Ltd (No 2) 420 ALR 731

REAL PROPERTY

Torrens system — Where first respondent recorder exercised power to correct errors or supply omissions in register under s 139 of Land Titles Act 1980 (Tas) so as to record benefit of easement on second respondent’s titles — Where appellant as registered proprietor of burdened land requested that recorder reverse recording of easement — Where appellant contended that original reservation of land had merely created personal licence — Whether recorder precluded from exercising power under s 139 because such exercise of power relates to earlier act performed under that section — Whether recording of easement protected by indefeasibility: Olympus Superannuation Fund (Tas) Pty Ltd (as trustee for the Olympus Superannuation Fund) v Recorder of Titles 420 ALR 601
