

RISK MANAGEMENT TODAY

2011 . No 8

Contents

- page 114 Draft Code on managing health and safety risks exposes weaknesses which will impact on risk management in general
Discusses both the good points and weaknesses of the Code How to Manage Work Health and Safety Risks.
Jean Cross, Emeritus Professor Risk and Safety Sciences UNSW
- page 118 How effective is your business continuity program?
This article discusses a comprehensive business continuity program which was implemented during the floods — and comments on the successes and the lessons learnt in developing such plans.
Mohinder Kainth CQR CONSULTING
- page 121 A look at the risks arising out of the new Australian Consumer Law
This article discusses the key risks to manage following the introduction of the ACL.
Alison Williams and Jeremy Masters FREEHILLS
- page 124 Internal audit — should it be mandatory?
Discusses the IIA's view that internal audit needs to be done independently.
Todd Davies TODD DAVIES & ASSOCIATES
- page 125 Mallesons report highlights risk management issues for boards
Responses from directors on challenges they face, including the role of boards and the changing regulatory landscape.
*Meredith Paynter and Vanessa Coffey
MALLESONS STEPHEN JAQUES*
- page 127 VIEWS FROM ABROAD: Integrity in bidding helps to avoid future claims and disputes
Tim Cummins IACCM

Expert Panel

Christine Lithgow,
*Special Counsel,
Corrs Chambers Westgarth*
Jean Cross,
*Emeritus Professor of Risk Management,
University of New South Wales*
Todd Davies,
Todd Davies & Associates
Dr Carl Gibson,
*Director of the Risk Management Unit,
La Trobe University, and
Chair of the working group responsible for AS/NZS 5050: 2010*

Risk Management Today

Is published monthly and is available in two formats: hardcopy and online. Feedback and suggestions regarding content is welcome and should be directed to the editor, Kerrie Tarrant, at kerrie.tarrant@lexisnexis.com.au.