

Retirement & Estate Planning

Bulletin

2011 . Vol 13 No 7

Contents

- page 374 The Finch Judgment — What it really means for SMSFs
The authors seek to “set the record straight” on the implications of recent High Court case Finch v Telstra Super Pty Ltd [2010] HCA 36.
Marita Wall and Bryce Figot DBA LAWYERS
- page 376 Ashes — Who has the right to Possession
In this second part to a two part series, the author looks at what happens after the cremation.
Christine Smyth ROBINS WATSON
- page 380 Family governance: Mitigating disputes and making the money last
The author examines how to avoid family disputes by incorporating Family Governance into estate planning.
Michael Perkins SCL ANDREYEV DOMAN
- page 385 Case Note — Krok v Szaintop Homes Pty Ltd [2011] VSC 16
The authors examine the issue of client legal privilege when dealing with trust documents.
Sam Frey and Katerina Peiros KLIGER PARTNERS
- page 387 Calendar

Editorial Panel

Tina Cockburn Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, Queensland University of Technology

Robert Deutsch Professor of Taxation, ATAX, Law Faculty, University of New South Wales; Barrister at Law

Guy Fisher Financial Planner, Godfrey Pembroke Financial Consultants

Andrew Frankland Executive Lawyer, Bartier Perry

Zein El Hassan Partner, Clayton Utz

Ian Marsh Mediator, Familydr, UK

Michael Perkins Principal, SCL Andreyev Doman

Allan Swan Partner, Moores Legal and Moores Training

Malcolm Voyce Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, Macquarie University

LexisNexis welcomes submissions to this newsletter. Please send proposals to the publishing editor. Contact details can be found on the back of this newsletter.