

30,000 cases over the past 12 months*
Seize the opportunity!

Fast track the success of your practice

In its first year, over 30,000 cases were lodged* with the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT).

Are you already practicing in this growing area? Are you looking to expand? Here is your opportunity. Gain a foothold and practice with confidence using LexisNexis' QCAT Practice & Procedure Guide.

This is the only source available in the market that provides annotations to the QCAT Act, Regulations and Rules which focus on case analysis and practical application. Obtain expert guidance on navigating through QCAT.

Although QCAT is a still relatively new tribunal, we have addressed over 116,000 matters in less than four years. I am humbled, but not surprised, that a leading publisher has chosen to support our service by producing a dedicated publication for practitioners. This publication is a testament to the importance of the Tribunal, as its work continues to increase

Justice Alan Wilson, President of QCAT

LexisNexis QCAT Practice and Procedure is the only publication of its kind in Australia. I recommend that you all go out and buy a copy

Jarrod Bleijie MP, Attorney-General and Minister for Justice

What you receive

- Expert commentary – Dr Dominic Katter, General Editor and Robert Gordon, Editor provide annotations and case references to QCAT legislation.
- Practical knowledge – This is the only source for QCAT-specific content and annotations (Act, Regulations and Rules).
- Relevancy – All case references are categorized by matter. Over the next 12 months specific commentary covering the different matter types heard in QCAT will be developed.

QCAT will be expanded to include the following in the next twelve months:

- QCAT Forms – Grouped by matter type with supporting explanatory notes (Sept/Oct 2013 release)
- QCAT Fees (Sept/Oct 2013 release)
- Critical Commentary on selected QCAT Matter Types including:
 - Guardianship and administration matters (Sept/Oct 2013 release)
 - Building matters (Sept/Oct 2013 release)
 - Anti-discrimination matters
 - Occupational regulation matters (Sept/Oct 2013 release)
 - Retail shop leases matters
 - Residential tenancy matters

In addition to the above, QCAT Practice and Procedure releases will include relative legislation updates, comprehensive indexing and tables of cases and statutes for practitioner reference.

Visit www.lexisnexis.com.au/qcat

For more information contact your Relationship Manager or call Customer Support on 1800 772 772.