

Personal Injury Law 2012 – QLD

Essential updates for practitioners involved in bringing and defending personal injury claims

Staying abreast of legislative change and trends within the evolving personal injuries space is vital to optimise outcomes for your clients and add value to your personal injuries practice.

Personal Injury Law 2012 – QLD will cover both plaintiff and defendant/insurer perspectives and will provide fresh insights on new developments and complex issues emerging in different areas of personal injuries law.

Learning outcomes

- Identify the evidence needed to successfully bring medical negligence claims
- Explore WorkCover obligations and requirements
- Address psychological injuries in workers compensation claims
- Hear an insurer's perspective on managing claims and approaching dispute resolution
- Be updated on the proposed National Disability Insurance Scheme

Who should attend?

- Personal Injuries Law Practice Groups
- Insurance Industry Executives
- Insurance Law Practice Groups
- Claims Assessors and Managers
- Barristers
- Partners
- Legal Officers and Managers