

Conveyancing 2012 – QLD

Practical strategies for overcoming legal and procedural challenges

The Conveyancing 2012 – QLD conference appraises contemporary developments in the Queensland conveyancing market, and will address central themes to keep practitioners updated with up-to-the-minute conveyancing law trends and issues.

Bringing together leading industry practitioners to discuss current topics and recent case law developments, this one day event will keep you abreast with how to manage and overcome the prevailing challenges within the current Queensland conveyancing domain.

Speakers

- Annette Greenhow, Assistant Professor, Bond University, Consultant Solicitor, REIQ

Learning outcomes

- Gear yourself with essential legislative updates
- Gain first-hand analysis of the latest case law
- Receive guidance and a thorough walk-through of the legal issues of Conveyancing involving the pre-contractual stage, between exchange and completion, to the remedies for breach of contract

Who should attend?

- Conveyancing Practitioners
- Young Lawyers
- Conveyancing Paralegals
- Related Property Professionals

3 May 2012
Stamford Plaza Brisbane