

LexisNexis - ALTA Award for Excellence and Innovation in the Teaching of Law 2010

Be Excellent. Be Innovative. Be Rewarded.

Recognition

Since 2008 LexisNexis-ALTA Award has become the symbol of recognition for Excellence and Innovation in the Teaching of Law. This year, LexisNexis and the Australasian Law Teachers Association (ALTA) invite you to submit your entries for the following two categories:

- Major category
- Early career teacher category

Entry Conditions

To enter either category you must be currently teaching at a university in Australia, New Zealand, the South Pacific or Papua New Guinea. You may nominate for only one Category. For these purposes an "Early Career teacher" is one who has no more than five years' experience teaching in a higher education setting in Australia, New Zealand, the South Pacific or Papua New Guinea. This should be interpreted as five consecutive calendar years and includes all tutoring, part-time teaching, and teaching at more than one higher education institution.

The Award

- The winner of the major category will receive an engraved medal, a cash award of $AU4000 and one year ALTA membership.
- The winner of the early career teacher category will receive an engraved medal, a cash award of $AU1000 and one year ALTA membership.
