Elisa de Wit is a partner in the Melbourne office of Norton Rose Australia. She is the Leader of the Norton Rose Australian climate change practice.

Elisa has a detailed understanding of all elements of the Government's clean energy package, including the Carbon Pricing Mechanism and the Carbon Farming Initiative. She has also provided extensive advice on the National Greenhouse and Energy Reporting System. Elisa's climate change practice also includes advising on climate change-related litigation.

In conjunction with RAMP Carbon, Elisa authored "Implementing the Carbon Farming Initiative – A Guide for Business" on behalf of the Carbon Markets Institute.

Elisa has practised in three Australian jurisdictions and the United Kingdom. She is named as a "leading lawyer" in the Australasian Legal Business Guide for Environmental Law and was recognised in Best Lawyers 2012 for climate change.
