

Risk Management for Mining Operations

CONTENTS

	Paragraph
Queensland
Introduction	[100,000]
What is an acceptable level of risk?	[100,100]
Safety and Health Management Systems	[100,200]
Principal Hazard Management Plans and Standard Operating Procedures	[100,300]
Standard work instructions	[100,400]
Regulations	[100,500]
Recognised standards	[100,600]
Guidelines	[100,700]
New South Wales
Introduction	[102,000]
What is reasonably practicable?	[102,100]
Safety and health management systems	[102,200]
Major hazard management plans for coal mining	[102,300]
Regulations	[102,400]
Codes of practice	[102,500]
Western Australia
Introduction	[104,000]
Reasonably practicable	[104,100]
Regulations	[104,200]
Codes of Practice	[104,300]
Northern Territory, Victoria, South Australia and Tasmania
Risk management approach	[106,000]
Comparison table of approach to risk management in mining legislation across Australia
Comparison table of approach to risk management in mining legislation across Australia	[106,100]

[The next page is 100,051]