

Fair Work Commission – Information Note - Government response to COVID-19

Date: 11 June 2020

Abstract

The Fair Work Commission (FWC) has issued an information note summarising the responses from governments in Australia regarding COVID-19.

Key information covered in note

The information note covers:

- rules around social distancing and moving through the lockdown stages;
- travel restrictions;
- support for business;
- interventions in the commercial and residential leasing market;
- relief for the the early childhood education sector;
- payroll tax and other revenue measures; and
- individual and household support.

It can be found here: Information Note: Government response to COVID-19 pandemic. The FWC says it will keep this note regularly updated.

What to do

This note is a useful ongoing summary of the measures that affect businesses and their staff and can be used as a reference tool.

See also: COVID-19 Toolkit for Employers and Pandemics and COVID-19