Legal drafting made simple.

Welcome to the future of legal documents.

Lexis Create is the one tool you need to effectively save time, deliver consistency and minimise errors while seamlessly linking with LexisNexis® legal intelligence products, all within the Microsoft Environment.

✔ More than just a drafting tool, Lexis Create provides a complete workflow solution.

There is no room for error in the law. Lexis Create is the one hub you need to smartly create, share and review legal documents. Seamlessly linking with other LexisNexis legal intelligence products, you will save time and reduce risk.

✔ Save time. Reduce risk.

To help reduce distractions and time lost by context switching, Lexis Create is embedded within the Microsoft environment you use every day. Linking seamlessly into your other LexisNexis legal intelligence products, Lexis Create ensures accurate and efficient drafting so you can focus on putting your legal knowledge into practice.

✔ Seamless integration is the Lexis Create difference.

Direct links to LexisNexis Practical Guidance, cases and legislation - no matter what you are working on, Lexis Create will help you build, check and complete documents.

Work smarter

Why reinvent your legal masterpiece?

Easily find and reuse the clauses you and your colleagues have already written and insert with one click.

Work collaboratively

Delegate different parts of legal document creation to team members to complete.

Citation checker

Automatically check the legal status of citations. Select and insert an alternative, if needed.

Legal proofreading at speed

Review and refine your document for the small mistakes that could cause big problems. Find inconsistencies in definitions, numbering and formatting.

Reduce risk

Client readiness at a click

Once complete, Lexis Create does a final sweep to ensure your work is client-ready. Instantly use digital signatures to optimise the client experience.

Everything you need in the Microsoft hub

Avoid disruptions to your workflow. Everything you need to build the perfect legal document is all in one place.

No more calculator errors

Is this a leap year? Is it gross or net? The built-in calculators will check your dates and numbers.

Redact sensitive information

Save or disclose documents safe in the knowledge that Lexis Create will efficiently remove the risk of displaying personal or confidential information.

Build documents from a library of resources, including LexisNexis forms and precedents, without leaving the Microsoft environment.

Snippets enable you to create, save, search and access a bank of clauses that can be date stamped, tagged and approved, improving accuracy and consistency across your practice.

Check for errors using the LexisNexis legal intelligence database to spot potential legal or formatting inconsistencies.

Access the power of Lexis Advance® research solutions to mitigate risk by providing a clear view of the law as it develops, ensuring the most accurate cross-references, so you can quickly find the strongest authorities to support your case.

Completed documents are client ready quickly and risk free using the clever redact function and DocuSign® built into the solution.
