Comprehensive Legal Information at your Fingertips

- Halsbury’s Laws of Australia provides statements of principle on the law of Australia through 89 titles.
- It is a legal encyclopaedia that provides succinct commentary on the current state of the law, supported by primary authority contained in detailed footnotes.
- It is arranged systematically and contains case and statute law authorities in support of the propositions of law.
- Each topic is written by an expert, then reviewed by a distinguished editorial panel and is intensively checked to give users confidence in its accuracy.
- It points you in the right direction to continue your investigation in complex or unfamiliar areas of law.
- It helps reduce research time dramatically – concise statements of law enable users to readily identify the current law.
- Along with CaseBase, Australian Encyclopaedia of Forms & Precedents, and LawNow, Halsbury’s Laws of Australia is part of the Lexis Nexis essential research tools solution and has a long-standing reputation for accuracy and quality.

Online

- With online links direct to the relevant Legislation and Case Law, Halsbury’s creates your research trail for you.
- Currency indicators at each paragraph.
- Direct hyperlinks to numerous LN products.
- Numerous hyperlink internal cross-references.
- Consolidated Index is updated regularly.
- Consolidated Tables of Cases and Statutes - updated regularly.
- Updated regularly.

Hardcopy

- Consolidated Index is updated regularly.
- Title Indexes, with each full title update.
- Consolidated Tables of Cases and Statutes - updated regularly.
- Title Tables, with full title update.

Features

1. Currency date specified and displayed at the top of each paragraph.
2. Links to Australian Current Law and Statutes Annotations update the text and enable further research.
3. CaseBase signals show treatment of cases and link to the CaseBase entry for that case, updating the text and enabling further research.
4. NEW! Links to LawNow Legislation update the text and enable further research.
5. Links to full text cases, including Unreported Judgments, and LexisNexis’ Report Series such as Australian Law Reports.
6. Extensive linking of cross-references within and across titles enables ease of use.
To Access Halsbury's:

Log on to LexisNexis AU at: www.lexisnexis.com/au/legal

1. Type “Halsbury’s Laws of Australia” in Source by title field, in the Quick Find section of the Home Page; then click Find.

Or

2. Click the Browse link to the right of Halsbury’s in the My Sources section of the Home Page

3. To Search Halsbury’s: with the homepage(below) open, click on Browse(A) and then choose Index and Tables from the View(B) drop down field:

4. To Open the field that suits your particular needs, simply Click on the + next to it. This opens up and Index you choose to search

Using Individual Search Fields

5. From the Halsbury’s Laws of Australia Homepage, Click on Search to open the Commentary Search Form(below):

You can enter your search terms into single or multiple fields:

Search Terms: Type in the specific words or terms you wish to find, e.g. director w/5 duty

References to Legislation: Enter the legislation title and provision number to find references, e.g. corporations act w/s 588g

References to Cases: Enter the name of one, or both, parties or a case citation to find references, e.g. black and garnock

Commentary Headings: This field allows you to search for specific words or terms in paragraph headings, e.g. director w/5 duty

Customer Relations: 1800 772 772 halsburys@lexisnexis.com.au Electronic Helpline: 1800 999 906